DOMINO RULES

The dominoes are doubles	The sum of the spots is an even number
The sum of the spots is an odd number	There are twice as many spots on one half as the other
There are three times as many spots on one half as the other	The difference in the number of spots on each half is … Add a number of your choice
The sum of all the spots is … Add a number of your choice	The product of the spots on each half is 12

The product of the spots on each half is 24	The two halves both have an even number of spots
The sum of all the spots is a square number	The sum of all the spots is a triangle number
The number of spots on one half is a multiple of the number of spots on the other	The sum of the spots is a multiple of 3
The sum of the spots is a multiple of 5	The sum of the spots is a multiple of 6
The number of spots on both halves is odd	The number of spots on both halves is a multiple of 3