

Amy has a box containing ordinary domino pieces but she does not think it is a complete set.

She has 24 dominoes in her box and there are 125 spots on them altogether.

Which of her domino pieces are missing? How do you know?

If you do not have any dominoes, you might like to use the interactive Dominoes Environment on the NRICH website to help you with this activity.