

Floors 5 and 6 of the block have the same number of cubicles.	The cubicles are arranged so they fit exactly on top of or below another cubicle.
There are half a dozen cubicles on Floor 3.	The block of cubicles has six stories.
There are ten cubicles on the ground floor.	Floors 2, 3 and 4 have the same number of cubicles.
The cubicles on every floor are arranged in rectangles with one side two cubicles long.	There are fewer cubicles on the higher floors.
All the Cubies know each other.	The bins are emptied on a Wednesday.

Cubies love symmetry so their block of Cubicles is symmetrical.	The two cubicles on Floor 6 have the best views.
The block of cubicles has no holes in the middle.	Floor 6 Floor 5 Floor 4 Floor 3 Floor 2 Floor 1
The smallest Cubie family is just 2 Cubies.	Families of three Cubies only live on the even-numbered floors.
There are nine families of three Cubies.	There are two couples with no children living in the block of cubicles.
There are 12 Cubie families with two adults and two children.	There are 4 Cubie families of two.

There are half as many families of 5 as there are families of 4.	Only one family lives in each of the cubicles.
Cubie families of 4 all live on the lowest four floors.	Half the families of four live on Floor 1.
Half as many families of four live on Floor 2 as Floor 1.	The same number of families of three live on Floor 2 as families of four.
Only one family of four lives on Floor 4.	The cubicles on floor 6 just have families of three Cubies.
The only family of six live on Floor 5 along with one of the families of five Cubies.	All but two of the families of 5 Cubies live on the lowest floor.

All the families of two Cubies live on the same floor.	Cubies' homes are called "Cubicles" because they are cube shaped.
Because the island is very small and Cubies like to live together, they have built their cubicles into one block.	On sunny days Cubies sit on the sand outside.
Cuba and Cubu are Cubie children who live in the block of 32 cubicles.	Cubies are called Cubies because they love cubes.
Cubies are a race of tiny people who live on a small island in the middle of the Indian Ocean.	All Cubies' homes are the same size no matter how big the family.
Cubies' homes are always cube shaped.	