

Which numbers? (1)

These numbers are in the blue set: 18, 27, 54, 72, 81, 99, but there are others too.	These numbers are in the green set: 5, 30, 35, 50, 70, 100, but there are others too.
These numbers are in red set: 19, 37, 55, 73, 82, but there are others too.	These numbers are in just one of the sets: 9, 10, 15, 37, 36, 85, but there are others too.
These numbers are in two of the sets: 45, 55, 90.	These are some of the numbers which are not in any of the sets: 4, 12, 26, 42, 56, 77, 97, but there are others too.
There are nine numbers altogether in the red set.	There are twenty numbers altogether in the green set.
There are eleven numbers altogether in the blue set.	There are 63 numbers altogether that are not in any of the sets.
There are no numbers that are in all three sets.	There are three numbers altogether in two sets.