

Long ago, I made a string of ten graded cubes.

Each edge of the smallest cube was one centimetre long. Each edge of the largest cube was ten centimetres long.

I labelled each one with its volume in cubic centimetres.

The challenge for you is to make a string of graded cubes. You might do better working in a team, so encourage your friends to help!